

Members of the 117th Congress who Co-sponsored the Medical Nutrition Equity Act in the Previous Congress

Members of Congress must agree to co-sponsor a bill in each new congress, so just because they were co-sponsors before, does not mean that they are automatically signed on once again. However, members of Congress who co-sponsored the bill in a previous congress, are likely open to doing so once again. Bill leads are highlighted, and those who have already agreed to co-sponsor in the 117th Congress are in BOLD.
